Abolhassan Banisadr (photographs above and below) born 22 March 1933, Hamadan, Iran. Banisadr was an informant for the US Central Intelligence Agency, from at least 1975 on.

Ayatollah Khomeini (photographs below) was a CIA informant, who after 1979, switched his loyalty and alliance to Russia.

In 1978 Abolhassan Banisadr in Tehran, Iran, was directed by Ayatollah Khomeini and the CIA to visit France and returned in the name of so called Iranian revolution with Ayatollah Khomeini to Iran on February 1, 1979.

On January 25, 1980, Abolhassan Banisadr was created as first president of the Islamic Republic of Iran, and chairman of the Revolutionary Council, and the Islamic Republic of Iran’s policy-making body which was originally drafted by the CIA. Under this policy-making body, later on, Ayatollah Ali Khamenei appointed as Supreme Leader on June 4, 1989, after Khomeini's death. (see above, photograph of Ayatollah Ali Khamenei 1981-1989 “President of the Islamic Republic of Iran 1980 - present”.)

The plan to take hostages from US Embassy in Tehran was engineered by Abolhassan Banisadr for the CIA in 1978.

Abolhassan Banisadr was “local manager and CIA player” of the 1979 hostage crisis, during which the remaining Fifty-two American diplomats and citizens were held hostage in Iran, for 444 days, from November 4, 1979, to January 20, 1981, thence begins the establishment of the Islamic Republic in Iran.

Despite the fact that so many documentary propaganda films and articles have been made about the 1979 Iran hostage crisis, none tell the truth, that the hostages owe their freedom, from 1979 to 1981, to one woman Ms Shahin Dokht Nozohoor Mehrabad, copy of her photograph from Australia travel document 015398 affixed above, and that she fought for their freedom in Iran. Shahin was owner of a hairdressing salon in Tehran, and until late 1978 secretary for Rastakhiz Party in Tehran, Iran. Rastakhiz Party (equivalent to Australian Labor Party) was founded in 1975 by the then Mohammad Reza Pahlavi.
Ms Shahin Dokht Nozohoor Mehrabad, in a bid to free the remaining US hostages, in late 1980, threatened Abolhassan Banisadr that, if the hostages were not freed, the information about his CIA informant role would be exposed. Her house was then torched, her property and all her belongings were destroyed by the fire, attached picture above.

As a result of these ultimatums, the remaining hostages were freed on January 20, 1981. Abolhassan Banisadr went into hiding and on July 29, 1981, Abolhassan Banisadr and Massoud Rajavi were smuggled aboard an Iranian Air Force Boeing 707, fleeing to Paris.

The US hostages were held in Iran for 444 days from November 4, 1979, to January 20, 1981. They were advertised as the guest of Ayatollah Khomeini, and to some extent, they were looked after, the world caring for their human rights. WHEREAS: His Majesty the Sovereign Shah of Iran was kidnapped, illegally transported to Australia, and still held hostage in Australia for over 30 years, has been subjected to assassination attempts, deprivation of medical treatments, defamations, and criminal conduct by Australian Government’s servants, agents, officers, ministers, politicians, media, and so on. Still denied receiving copy of mandatory foreign medical reports and mandatory foreign police report from which country His Majesty the Sovereign Shah of Iran was transported to Australia.

Ms Shahin Dokht Nozohoor Mehrabad, born in 1947, Azerbaijan, Iran, after being persecuted in Iran for her effort in freeing the US hostages, left Iran, and then migrated to Australia on May 25, 1988, from Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. She is known by her married name Mrs Shahin Fard, now a stately 72, resides in Canberra. Her postal address, PO Box 477 WODEN, ACT, 2606, Australia. Telephone/SMS: 0469955772 calling from abroad + 61 469955772.

About 1990, Shahin discovered that, without her knowledge, her identity and her daughter’s name and identity were illegally used by Australian Government and other agencies, to create a fraudulent identity to hide the abduction and presence of His Majesty The Sovereign Soltan Qeumars Shah Qajar, Head of Monarchy, Coronated Sovereign of Iran, on the government system in Australia. Was this the CIA and affiliates, answer to disrupting their master plan for control of Iran oils and resources?

United Nations and several organizations including Amnesty International have been notified about the kidnapping and the unlawful detainment of His Majesty The Sovereign Soltan Qeumars Shah Qajar in Australia, and have ignored their international obligations and commitments.

Share and forward to any survivors of 1979 US hostages, and post their reply on Facebook, Twitter, etc. How would they feel, if they had been abandoned and ignored by all, even by the sanctimonious United Nations and they were still being held hostage after 30 years?
